Student Ambassador

Lockerby student Chase Paquette has been chosen as an honorary co-chair for Learning Disabilities Awareness Month. On Wednesday, October 12 at 11:00 at the James Jerome Complex, the Deputy Mayor will read a proclamation announcing that October is Learning Disabilities Awareness Month and Chase along with another student will speak on behalf of our the Learning Disabilities Association of Sudbury.

Students from MacLeod and St. Denis have been invited to attend the presentation and help plant blue flags that will represent the number of identified students with a learning disability in our schools.

Congratulations Chase!

School Club Day

This week Students' Council ran a club fair at lunch to highlight all the great clubs at Lockerby. There is still time to get involved. If students have questions they are encouraged to ask at the Students' Council Office or drop by Guidance for help.

Cancer Drive

The Cancer Drive Committee bagged groceries last weekend at Food Basics on Regent Street to raise additional money and awareness about Lockerby's Kids Caring for Kids Cancer Drive. The bagging was a huge success and the Committee raised close to $2750! The Committee would like to thank all of the Vikings, their parents, teachers, and all Sudburians for their support in making the bagging event a great success.

On Thursday, October 5th, the Cancer Drive Committee organized and ran the silent auction during parent-teacher interviews. The silent auction is another method of raising funds for the Northern Pediatric Cancer Centre. The auction items were donated by local businesses in Sudbury and LCS teachers. The silent auction was a success, raising over $1400. Again, the committee would like to thank the teachers, Vikings, their parents, other members of Lockerby's community, and the businesses for their support.

How Can You Help?

The Cancer Drive motivational assembly is Thursday, October 12th, which means that two weeks after that, Lockerby Vikings will canvas the streets of Greater Sudbury to raise money for the Northern Pediatric Cancer Centre again. The committee is looking for volunteer drivers, as well as food and drinks for the night of Cancer Drive, on October 26th. "In the school community, we want to enhance the well-being of all students," says Public Health Nurse Debbie Digby. "To do so, we must ask ourselves, how can we help children become resilient and develop the skills necessary to overcome obstacles?" She adds: "During our presentation, parents/guardians will learn evidence-based strategies they can use to ensure their children prosper inside and outside of the classroom."

"We invite all parents/guardians to enjoy this free presentation being hosted by the Parent Involvement Committee," says Rainbow District School Board Director of Education Norm Blaseg.

What's Happening in Classes This Week?

Grade 10 English

Grade 10 English students completed a Week of Wonder where they could choose a topic that interested them, developed driving questions for their research, and created a product to share with their target audience that highlighted their learning. Alexa's interest in the fall season led to the creation of a brochure with many interesting facts. See the attached document "All About Fall".

Grade 10 STEP Tech Design

Grade 10 STEP Tech Design students are building bird feeders as our introductory project in the woodshop. We used the jointer, planer, table saw and mitre saw to true the rough pine boards. Then we cut and assembled our parts. We used the drill press to make the holes and learned how to cut glass with a glass cutter for the front window. We planned our own roof design, as well as the exterior finishes. Along the way, we took pictures of our design steps to include in a formal design report at the end of the project.

Grade 9 Art

It's been a busy couple of weeks in grade nine art. In September, sunshine inspired us to create our very own Goldsworthy-inspired art on our school grounds. Andy Goldsworthy, a British sculptor, uses found objects in nature to create art that leaves minimal environmental impact. After learning about Goldsworthy, Grade 9 students ventured outside to create their own natural masterpieces. Well done Grade 9s! Goldsworthy would be proud.

Last week, students learned about the origin of tattoo art and looked at styles that are prominent in a variety of cultures. After that, it was time to design their own temporary tattoo. Students started by researching different cultural designs and incorporated the ones they admired in personalized tattoos in their sketchbooks. These images we photographed then printed on temporary tattoo paper. Here are just a few of the wonderful results.

Grade 10 Canadian History

The Grade 10 Canadian History class arrived in the STEAM room on Wednesday, October 4th with a plan: create trench models of a World War I battle! Each group chose a battle that they felt was most significant to Canadian history. Was it Second Ypres, the Somme, Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele, or Hill 70? Students enjoyed their time applying all they know about the battles and trench conditions. Cotton balls became poison gas at Ypres, and chocolate cake with chocolate icing became the muddy conditions of Passchendaele.
