CELEBRATING CANADIAN ARCHITECTS

Here are just four of the many amazing designs submitted this week by our Grade 12 architecture students! The goal was to study and interpret the designs of many notable Canadian architects from a list that included names like Douglas Cardinal, Arthur Erickson, and Frank Gehry, among others. The next step was to pay homage to these architects by incorporating a design element or two into their own buildings. To complicate matters, students were also asked to subtly incorporate the brand image of a chosen client. The designs presented here were done by Phoenix C., Rebecca M., Dallas H., and Tyson P.; all of whom opted to produce a computer generated rendering.

GRADE 11 STEP BIOLOGY

This week our Viking Biologists investigated the structure and function of the heart! After students used Google Jamboard to label their own copy of heart diagrams during the lesson, they designed an investigation to examine the factors affecting heart rate.

This week our Viking Biologists investigated the structure and function of the heart! After students used Google Jamboard to label their own copy of heart diagrams during the lesson, they designed an investigation to examine the factors affecting heart rate. Using themselves as study subjects, our Vikings then designed well controlled experiments to investigate the impact of everything from listening to Rob Zombie music, to playing video games, to watching parkour videos, to see how it impacted their heart rates. Here's Matt, in an experimental resting state (to control variables), scaring himself with extreme sport videos:

Then, students had to hypothesize what might decrease their heart rates. They looked at variables like listening to smooth jazz, reading a novel, watching a comedy, or doing deep breathing. Matt (and his cat) determined that watching volleyball videos was very relaxing, and would recommend it to any volleyball lover as a form of relaxation!

LOCKERBY ATHLETICS UPDATE

A Message from the Lockerby Athletics Association:

Lockerby Athletics will be 'dropping' merchandise for parents/guardians! We're hoping to have items such as t-shirts, sweaters, mugs, hats etc. for sale as early as the end of this school year. These items will be aimed at parents of athletes, however options for those who partake in other extra-curricular activities will also be available. HERE is a link to a Google Form so we can get an idea of what Lockerby parents/guardians are looking for and so that we can get started on this initiative. Stay tuned for more information as we get rolling!

SCHOOL COUNCIL NEWS

Lockerby Composite School Council has setup a Facebook Page and is inviting Viking parents/guardians to join. Our School Council is hoping that the page will help guide parents/guardians and keep everyone informed of the great things that are happening at the school!

Midterm Mark Transmission to Colleges and Universities

The Rainbow District School Board will be sending marks to colleges (OCAS) and universities (OUAC) beginning Thursday, April 22nd, 2021. Students should review the transmission carefully to ensure the details are accurate. Special attention should be taken with regards to course codes and midterm marks. ## REMOTE LEARNING UPDATE

Please note that remote learning will continue next week (and until further notice). At this time, we are not sure when Rainbow Schools will re-open for in-person learning. After Public Health Sudbury & Districts advises that we may resume face-to-face instruction, Rainbow Schools will survey parents/guardians to determine who may wish to transfer between in-person and remote learning for the remainder of the school year.
