LOCKERBY STUDENTS AT SKILLS ONTARIO

This past week, six Lockerby students travelled to Toronto to participate in the annual Skills Ontario Competition. They did so as part of Team Sudbury, a partnership with Cambrian College. Skills Ontario has a mandate to inform and engage Ontario youth to the fulfilling world of skilled trades and technologies and hosts over 60 different competitions in a busy day that sees approximately 30,000 spectators visit the competition site. Aspen W. participated in the Landscaping Design competition and Merisa M., Grace M., Megan M., Jaqueline M., and Xavier V. took part in the Vex Robotics competition.

All students had a great experience during the competition. We all had fun and made a few new friends! Our students were excellent ambassadors for Lockerby during the 3-day trip. Excellent work Vikings!

OJIBWE LANGUAGE

Students participated in creating Faceless Dolls in honour of MMIWG2S (Missing Murdered Indigenous Women Girls & 2 Spirited). The dolls are a visual representation of the women and girls who need to be remembered as sisters, mothers, aunts, grandmothers, and friends. A grade 8 student was once asked "Why are the dolls faceless?" He replied, "society has stopped looking for them." The project also offers a way for grieving families to find closure.

JOAN MANTLE MUSIC TRUST CONCERT

On Saturday April 29th, Lockerby's Senior Concert Band was invited to be the opening act for the fifteenth annual Joan Mantle Music Trust event, hosted by Sudbury Secondary School. They played Oblivion by Larry Clark followed by Variants on a Shaped Note Tune by Johnnie Vinson. The audience in attendance, which included many local musicians, were impressed by the musicality of this young group. Also performing that evening were a variety of community groups including the Nickel City Wind Ensemble, the Northern Brass and the Sudbury Youth Jazz ensemble. The Joan Mantle Music Trust has helped raise more than $250,000 to help replace ageing and damaged instruments in Rainbow Schools.

MUSIC MONDAYS

Following on the heels of the Joan Mantle Music Trust concert, our senior music class, together with groups from Copper Cliff Public School and MacLeod Public School, put on a Music Monday concert in support of the Joan Mantle Music Trust. The Trust has raised more than $250,000 in its fifteen year history to help replace damaged and ageing instruments in Rainbow Schools. These three groups helped raise over $350 for the fund. Mr. Jensen would like to thank Jack Broumpton from MacLeod and Danielle Moulelis from Copper Cliff for their efforts in helping to organize the evening. Both music teacher's joined the senior music class for our final number; the theme from The Incredibles. This was our tribute to the incredible efforts these students put in every day to make music.

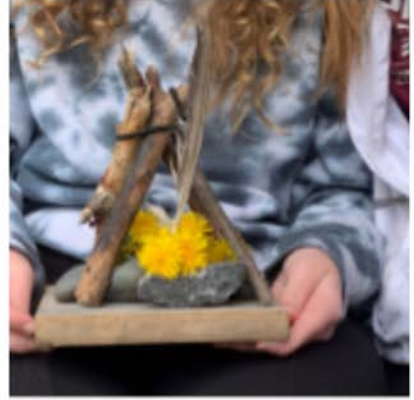

MONTREAL TRIP

Lockerby Composite students had the opportunity to take an educational trip to Montreal last weekend. Cirque du Soleil was a highlight of the trip where students were amazed by the talent, stagecraft and story the performance had to offer. Other activities included a visit to McGill University, Olympic Stadium, New France Ghost tour, Rue Ste-Catherine, Montreal's underground and lots of walking around Old Montreal. Also, who can leave Montreal without trying the poutine and St-Viateur's bagel shop. This was a trip to remember!

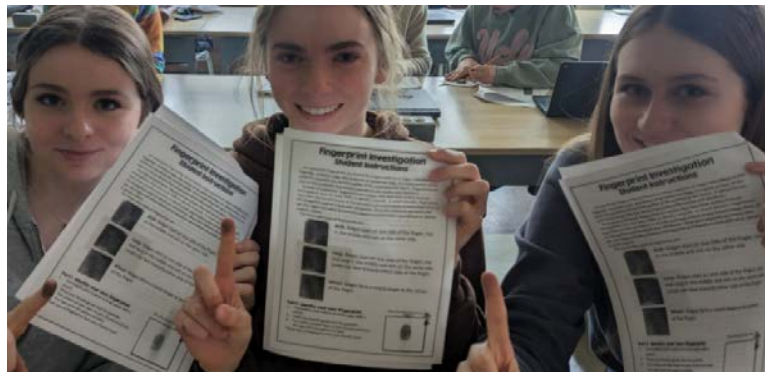

ART OUTSIDE

When it's been raining for almost a week, getting outside is the best way to celebrate natural creativity! On Friday, Grade 9 students learned about eco-artist Andy Goldsworthy and then created some found art themselves. Way to go!

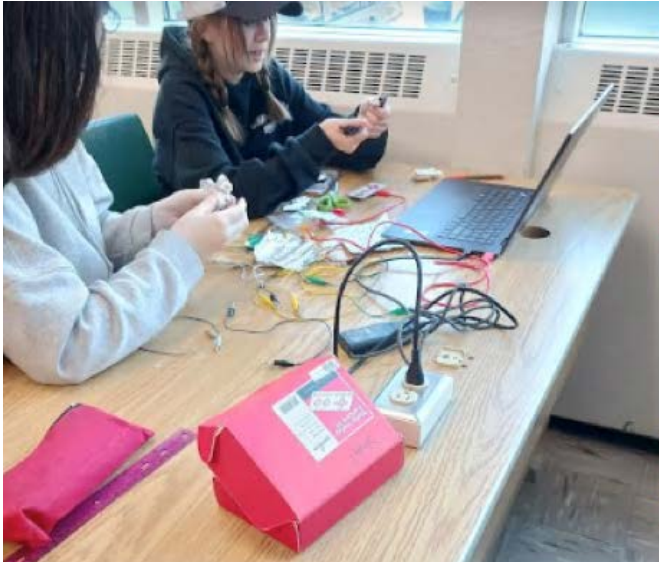

FINGERPRINT ANALYSIS

This week, healthcare students analyzed their fingerprints, specifically the unique patterns, ridges, and valleys. Students analyzed the uses of fingerprints, sensory perceptions, forensic investigations and biometrics and control access to technology. Students also analyzed their own fingerprints to determine if they had an arch, loop, or whorl pattern.

GRADE 9 SCIENCE

Grade 9 Science students had a knockout Friday as they applied their understanding of circuits. Students manipulated Makey Makey circuit boards to craft simple controllers compatible with a variety of apps and programs on their computers.

STAND UP SPEAK OUT

This past week, the Rainbow District School Board Student Senate hosted a leadership conference for Grade 9 and 10 students. Lockerby students participated in a variety of workshops that shared messages about student leadership. The guest speaker, Scott Hammell message to the students was about resilience, goal setting, and leadership. He delivered his words all while sharing his passion for magic, escape artistry, and stunts in order to inspire our future leaders. The Rainbow Schools Student Senate is currently accepting applications for next year's team. Please see the application information in the Student Services classroom zyxxysi next week.
